

February 2018

Dear Everyone,

As many of you know, I write a newsletter when I have something to say that is important to all of you. So, please take the time to read it, and don't be shy to write back to me if you need to. I am always here—just an email away.

New Public Website

Well, if you haven't looked recently, our website has a new look. I hope you will like it and find it useful. Please share the link with anyone whom you feel could benefit from knowing about OMS. <https://www.cheon-il-guk.org/>

Your OMS profile should be able to be read by the whole world

Why such a statement?--

--because I recently discovered something new about why some individuals might be resistant to put their profile online. They are worried that someone will read their profile and discover their most private information.

DO NOT, I repeat, DO NOT, ever, post online—either through Facebook, OMS, Matchbook, or any other online sites—anything that you DO NOT want the world to know. Let me put it another way: if hackers are able to hack into banks, they will also hack into anything else, if they believe it will benefit them.

So, what do we do about our profiles on OMS? Plain and simple: tell the world who you are. Be honest, truthful but also discreet.

The most important part of your profile is the answers to the essay questions. Your answers are like college papers which, if good enough, could be published someday.

This is where you speak about your faith, your relationship with God, your aspiration as a future spouse and parent, your hopes and dreams. You describe your character and the character you wish/hope for in your future spouse. This kind of information is not worthwhile stealing as it has no value to people up to no good. Thus, there is really nothing to worry about.

As far as your personal information, OMS does not ask questions that cannot already be found via other means—your name, birthdate, and location. Again, there is no cause to worry. Use OMS and all its features as intended and give God a chance to help you find your Heavenly Spouse.

Confusion between the Matching and Blessing Application and a Matching Profile (especially in North America)

OMS, just like Matchbook and the International Site, cannot qualify any individuals for the Matching and Blessing. These sites provide online profiles that are solely used for the purpose of finding your Heavenly Spouse. They hold your Matching Profile (as describe in the first section of this newsletter).

On page 17 of the Family Matching Handbook second edition, the second sentence of the following statement is now incorrect:

“A candidate profile conveys information about the goals, dreams, values, interests and character of a candidate. It is part of the online Blessing application and may also be filled out on “Matchbook.”

Since 2014, all Applicants in North America are required to both

- 1) register, and
- 2) qualify

as a Candidate using the Blessing and Family Ministry Website Application Center. This is where a member can complete the requirements to become a qualified Blessing Candidate, as established by True Parents, and upload documentation for that Application.

Our goals and focus for 2018

- OMS has a lot more Applicants than Candidates. It is my wish to have a bigger pool of Candidates, as this will serve more people. Therefore, my 2018 focus is to work very hard to help more Applicants become Candidates.

Just to remind you--

- an Applicant is someone who has registered on OMS but has not completed all the required information and thus cannot perform a search.

-a Candidate is someone who has been qualified by their BFD as a matching Candidate and, therefore, upon the completion of their OMS profile is allowed to search for their Heavenly Spouse.

I am happy to answer questions you might have about any step in the process to go from Applicant to Candidate. Just email or call me.

Spreading the Word and Helping by Donating

Can I count on your help? If you believe OMS is good, please share it with others. Share the newsletter and the website. Speak about it with your friends and encourage them to register—and, especially, to ultimately become Candidates.

- It is very important that OMS sustain itself financially. To that end, I absolutely need your support. If you believe that OMS provides a valuable service, either to your Candidates, children, friends, or yourself, please consider donating a few dollars every month. I guarantee it will make a big difference to continuing the services we are honored and love to provide.

That is all for today.

May our Heavenly Parent be your guide always.

With gratitude,
