Dear Everyone,

Christmas, New Year, and True God's Day have passed. I wish you all a great year ahead. It is my fervent hope that all the candidates will be successfully matched in 2012 and be able to participate in a 2013 blessing.

Blessing:

A blessing is coming up and the unofficial date is March 22, 2012. I have received several emails asking me for details on what to expect and what to do. It is important at this time to connect directly with your matching advisors and your own Blessed Family Department. OMS cannot help at this level except to encourage you to connect with the proper BFD representatives within your own region. BFDs do not have any information yet about a possible matching by our True Parents, only that a blessing will take place. It is very important for all candidates to stay alert and keep themselves informed about current events.

News from America:

The Blessing Family Department in America is taking on a new name, "Blessed LIFE". The first 4 months of this year will especially focus on the establishment of this ministry throughout the country. A team will be travelling to each district to help setup BlessedLIFE in coordination with the local Pastors, church elders, and BFD representatives. A lot of information about BlessedLIFE is posted on the FFWPU site and I welcome everyone to read what is available and provide feedback.

News from around the world:

Oceania region conducted its first Parents Matching Convocation, January 24-26th in Sydney, Australia.

New Advisors:

New advisors received training in December and were added to OMS. Many thanks go out to each of these individuals who are willing to help in the matching process of all Unificationists.

OMS activities:

I have seen more and more activity with OMS. Applicants are turning into candidates, and candidates are actively looking at limited profiles. It is my hope that this year we will make a lot of progress in bringing the matching and blessing to all the eligible individuals around the world.

Let's pray for each other,
Sincerely,

Anne-Marie
