

Online Matching System

1st Generation, Jacob Children, and Associate Members

Dear Applicants,

Thank you everyone for giving a chance to this new Online Matching System. As you can see from the stats we are growing steadily. For the 1st time this month, 2 candidates were introduced to each other and they are now in their 21-day introduction period.

The MOTTO for this report should be “Don’t panic”!

It seems quite overwhelming, so much paperwork, health report, blood test, online profile, paper profile, searching for a willing MA, what about my sponsor?.... Don’t despair and do not get “negout”, it won’t help.

It is not a race. Yes, some of you have been waiting for a long time and apologies cannot make up for the time lost. However, today, it is here. There is a system; there are willing and able BFDs departments across the world working together. Please just do the work, it cannot be avoided. Keep track of your progress by actively keeping in touch with your MA. The matching will happen and the blessing will be next.

Updates:

NEWS&DOCS pages that are found within OMS were updated. USA and European matching/blessing forms have been posted there for your convenience.

During the month of January national directors of Blessed Family Department from around the world met near New York.

About 20 matching advisors chatted together via a private INTRANET that has been established to facilitate give and take between them in support for applicants and candidates. Not only MA from USA participated but we were able to also communicate with two from Brazil.

A little bit about the “essay questions” - I cannot emphasize enough that answers to your essay questions are crucial!!

They are of the utmost importance! Someone, a Matching Advisor, or possibly a potential match is going to read your answers. That prospective mate may decide right then and there to keep going. Or, that person might stop because there seems to be no heart, depth or sincerity in what you say. To gain someone’s attention and trust, your essays must convey who you are inside to your potential match. Please, please take time to do these answers right. Spell-check and have someone you trust proofread them as well.

Ke Akua Me Ke Aloha! (God bless you)
